DAY THREE – Dublin City Tour

This morning begins with an orientation tour of Dublin. During the panoramic tour your local guide will explain the history and architecture as you drive through this beautiful capital city. See the River Liffey, St. Patrick's Cathedral, St. Stephen's Green and travel along O'Connell Street with its monument to Daniel O'Connell and other notable figures from Ireland's turbulent history. Pass the General Post Office, site of rebel headquarters in the 1916 Easter Rising. During the walking tour, stroll through Georgian Dublin and see the National Museum, the National Gallery and the Parliament Building before arriving at Trinity College with the Book of Kells, the famous hand-illuminated gospel manuscript. This evening, join in the merriment as you dine in an 18th-century pub and enjoy a traditional show featuring Irish dance, music and song. (Breakfast and dinner)

DAY FOUR – Wicklow and Waterford

Leaving Dublin, journey south into the forested hills and rolling valleys of County Wicklow, traditionally known as the "Garden of Ireland". Striking terraces, fine statuary, floral displays and over 200 varieties of trees, shrubs and flowers greet you during the visit to stunning Powerscourt Gardens, set against the backdrop of Sugarloaf Mountain. The walled city of Waterford retains much of its medieval character and is the oldest city in Ireland. Visit the House of Waterford Crystal, in the heart of the city, where highly skilled local craftsmen produce 40,000 crystal pieces per year, including trophies for prestigious sporting events. (Breakfast and dinner)

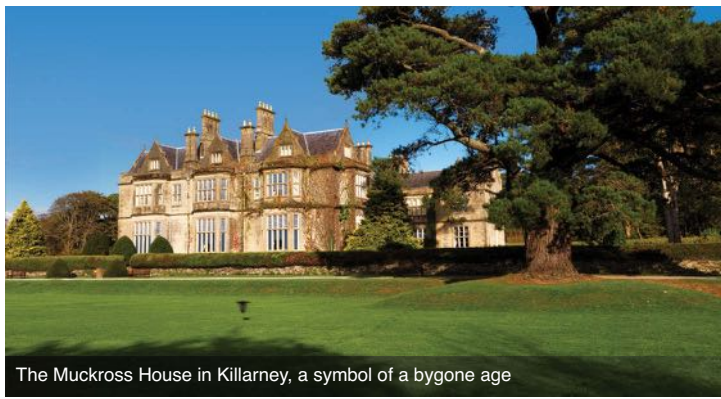

DAY FIVE – Cork, Blarney and West Cork

Today's adventure begins with a visit to Cork, Ireland's second largest city. A panoramic tour highlights the sites of the city as you drive along the Grand Parade. See City Hall, St. Patrick's Street and Shandon Steeple – the symbol of the city. This spire of St. Anne's Church, built atop a hill, overlooking the River Lee, is a noted landmark of Cork. St. Fin Barre's Cathedral, named after the city's patron saint, is another of Cork's distinctive landmarks. Get caught up in the aura of magic and mystique with an included visit to Blarney Castle. Wishing Steps, Witch's Kitchen, Druid's Cave and other delights all tell a story of centuries past. The 'Stone of Eloquence', considered to be Ireland's greatest treasure, bestows the 'gift of gab' to all who kiss it. Climb to the top of the castle, kiss the Blarney Stone and see if the legend holds true! The day concludes with arrival in the traditional Irish village of Glengarriff, located on world-renowned Bantry Bay, where the mountains meet the sea.

Puffins, Guillemots, Razorbills and Peregrine Falcons nest and soar in this amazing natural habitat. Traveling through the Burren, discover the rough and intriguing landscape of this limestone plateau, carved by glaciers during the last receding ice age. The remains of wedge and megalithic tombs are proof people have been living in the Burren for more than 5000 years. This lively, colorful town is the perfect setting to enjoy your two-night castle stay! (Breakfast and dinner)
